EMPLOYMENT APPLICATION INSTRUCTIONS AND INFORMATION

Thank you for your interest in employment with the CNMI Judiciary. A clear understanding of your background and work history is important to effectively evaluate your qualifications. The completion of this application represents your ability to provide written or typed communication and follow directions. Your completed application is the primary source of information for making selection decisions and you may be evaluated solely on the information provided.

Instructions and Information:

- 1. Employment applications must be received or postmarked by the announced closing date. Late applications will not be accepted.
- 2. A separate CNMI Judiciary Employment Application must be submitted for each position opening.
- 3. Print or type your employment application clearly. Incomplete or illegible applications may not be accurately reviewed.
- 4. Attach supplement sheets, if necessary, to complete your application.
- 5. All submitted CNMI Judiciary Employment Applications must be signed by the applicant, certifying that all statements are true and complete. An unsigned application may be rejected. (For applications submitted electronically your name will serve as your official signature certifying the contents of the application) If at any time any information provided in the employment application is determined to be false, you will not longer be considered for employment, or if already employed with the Judiciary, may be subject to immediate termination.
- 6. Resumes are encouraged. However, they will only be considered as a supplement to the CNMI Judiciary Employment Application, the information contained within the resume may or may not be used to award points during the application review. Resumes sent in lieu of the application will not be considered.
- 7. Submitting an employment application does not mean you will be interviewed or hired.
- 8. Once submitted, notify the office to which you submitted an employment application of any change in name, address, telephone number or availability.
- 9. If you are offered employment, your employment will be conditional, subject to the results of a routine background investigation, including a criminal history check, drug testing and court records check.
- 10. If you are hired, the Immigration Reform and Control Act requires that you provide proof of your eligibility to work in the United States within three work days. Failure to do so may result in immediate termination.

The Judiciary is an Equal Opportunity Employer.
